

NGOs CO-ORDINATION BOARD

NOTICE TO THE GENERAL PUBLIC

Woman and Children Welfare Organization

The NGOs Co-ordination Board wishes to bring to the attention of the general public, and individuals/firms the activities of Woman and Children Welfare Organization, an NGO registered under section 10 of the NGOs Co-ordination Act 1990 under certificate No: OP 218/051/16-055/10150.

The public is hereby informed that the organization has deviated from its charitable objective contrary to provisions of the NGOs Co-ordination Act, its attendant regulations and the terms and conditions attached to its registration certificate.

The organization has been floating tenders to the general public, obtaining goods from suppliers under false pretenses and defaulting on payments. The organization is currently under investigations by the Board and the Directorate of Criminal Investigations.

The Board has therefore taken the necessary action of deregistering the organization and hereby notifies all members of the public to desist, refrain and/or avoid any dealings with it. Therefore the organization is not allowed to operate as an NGO and any dealings undertaken despite this notice will be to your risk as to costs and other incidentals.
